

What are the benefits of giving by deed of covenant?

You'll be ensuring that the compassion we share can continue to make a real difference to the people who need us

With your gift, you're ensuring that the care that is so important to you can continue into the future

You'll have the satisfaction of knowing what a positive difference your gift is making

Giving by covenant helps you to plan your finances and spread your commitment

You don't have to think about giving each month as it's already set up
