

Our Top 10 fundraising ideas

If you would like to fundraise for Sue Ryder during Covid-19 but need some inspiration, we've got some great ideas for you below.

The cancellation of fundraising events and closure of our shops during the COVID-19 pandemic, means we need your support now more than ever. Help us to be there when it matters, and get fundraising for Sue Ryder.

1. Online Auction

Ask for donations from business, friends and family and set up an online auction using social media. People can browse the lots and place bids from the comfort of their own homes. Place a deadline on bids and use a fundraising page for people to pay for their winning lots directly to Sue Ryder.

2. Doorstep sale

Had a house clear out or been using lockdown to sort out the children's toys? Set up a bric-a-brac stall outside your home in return for donations.

3. Raffle

From pamper hampers, weekends away and nights in with your favourite takeaway and drinks provided, the choices for prizes are endless. You could ask people to donate prizes or put them together yourself as your own contribution.

4. Garden gathering

Make the most of your garden with friends and family this summer. You could host a BBQ, garden party or afternoon tea in return for donations. Just make sure you stick to the allowed numbers.

Sue Ryder

palliative, neurological
and bereavement support

5. Use your skills

From bird boxes to bunting, making masks to musical performances. Sing, sew, craft and create - using the hobbies you enjoy and make a difference.

6. Isolation imagination

Set your own challenge. Climb the equivalent of Everest using your staircase, complete a marathon in the backyard or do something of your own from the comfort of your home.

7. Birthday

Celebrating a birthday in lockdown? Ask for donations to Sue Ryder instead of presents or that usual birthday drink and use your celebrations to help others when it matters most.

8. Sweepstake

With sporting fixtures returning to our screens, hold a sweepstake with a prize for the winners and the rest donated to Sue Ryder. You could even use something as simple as a football scratch card for an easy fundraiser.

9. Bake

If you're a whizz in the kitchen put your talents to good use. Ask friends, family or neighbours for a donation in return for making their favourite cakes, bakes or box of treats. You could even organise a live cook-along from your kitchen!

10. Online classes

Are you waiting until the gyms open or your favourite fitness class restarts? Organise an online workout or class and invite your fellow fitness fanatics to join in too by making a donation.

We're here to help you fundraise safely

While fundraising for Sue Ryder please bear in mind the current restrictions and follow the government guidance. You can read our supporter guidelines here.

Thank you for supporting us.