A birthday challenge

We're lucky to have a wide range of amazing supporters here at Sue Ryder Leckhampton Court Hospice, who take part in some extraordinary challenges to help us to be there when it matters most.

Rebekah Bircher is aiming to raise £30,000 for Sue Ryder Leckhampton Court Hospice to mark her 30th birthday, through a series of charity events and challenges, including a climb up Snowdon with 13 family and friends.

Bec is raising this staggering amount in memory of her older sister, Kathryn Bircher, who died from cancer when she was 30 in 2019.

“I really wanted to do something positive to honour Kat, while doing something to support Sue Ryder Leckhampton Court Hospice, where she spent her final days,” shares Bec.

“Kat was a truly inspirational person, really funny, bubbly and so loving…”

“My aim is to raise £30,000 in my 30th year for Sue Ryder Leckhampton Court Hospice and I have loads of different things planned to bring in money from lots of different angles and avenues. It is going to be a busy 2022!”
