A birthday challenge

We’re lucky to have a wide range of amazing supporters here at Sue Ryder Manorlands Hospice, who take part in some extraordinary challenges to help us to be there when it matters most.

Tony, a former Keighley CID chief and BBC investigator, is no exception, having embarked on a length-of-Britain walking adventure from Lands End to John O’Groats in Spring 2021. The challenge had even more significance as Tony celebrated his 70th birthday, having completed the gruelling 1000 mile walk twice before for his 50th and 60th birthdays. Crossing the line on the 24th June, 56 days after setting off, Tony completed the distance four days faster than his 2001 walk 20 years ago.

Tony was entirely self-sufficient throughout his challenge, refusing lifts and public transport and carried all his belongings in just one rucksack. Reflecting on the journey, Tony said: “It’s been an immensely uplifting and exhilarating experience. There have been many highs and a few lows on this journey, but I have been overwhelmed by the support, kindness, goodness and generosity of so many people I’ve met along the way.”

Tony has raised over £15,000 for the hospice, which has provided specialist care and emotional support to people during the most difficult of times.

If you’ve been inspired and would like to support Sue Ryder Manorlands Hospice in your own way, do get in touch with the fundraising team on the details below.
